Foreword

High on the list of necessities for bodily survival stands water. The tiny drops of dew which impearls the blade of morning grass have their contribution to make, no less than the circumjacent oceans. But for all its service to mankind, water contains many properties — depth, strength, beauty, power, play —

First on the list of necessities for spiritual survival stands a knowledge of God. The lisping prayer — words which fall from the lips of the toddler waft their way skyward as do the sonorous tones of the aged minister. And the learning of God contains much — depth, strength, beauty, power, joy —

Because Oakwood is dedicated to the service of leading men to God, even as water leads them to life, the ACORN staff presents for your edification the 1961-62 annual, with its theme — WATER.

Life Sketch of Dr. Z. H. Coberly

Dr. Zoral H. Coberly, a third generation Seventh-day Adventist, is one of four children born to Elder and Mrs. Robert Coberly. As a boy, he pursued his education through our denominational schools from the (very) beginning.

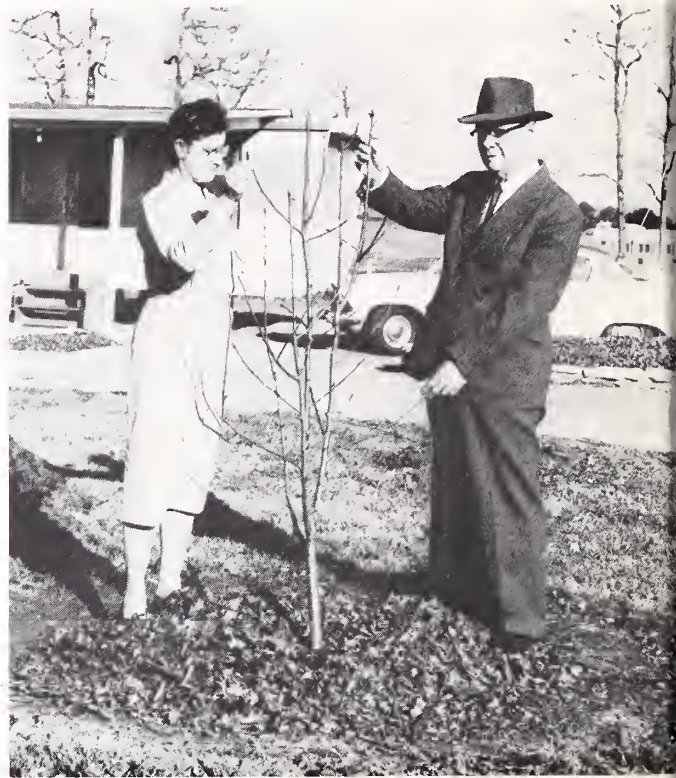

During his senior year at the Gem State Academy his father's health failed. Thrown upon his own resources, he went to work, stacking hay and digging potatoes. This knowledge of how to work, plus wise use of study hours, enabled him to graduate from Walla Walla College. Though he labored eight to ten hours per day (beginning with milking at three-thirty each morning), he found time not only to maintain a high scholastic average but also to persuade Miss Elga Barclay that her future was to permanently intertwine with his.

She agreed, stipulating, however, that they wait for three years before marrying, as she wished to finish her nurse training. Time has proved the wisdom of their decision. Throughout the years,—twenty of them in China's mission field—Mrs. Coberly's nursing skill has made her an able partner in this husband-wife team.

Ever eager to continue his learning, Dr. Coberly seized furloughs and enforced vacations to obtain his Masters' degree from the Seventh-day Adventist Theological Seminary at Washington, D. C. After the Communists forced all missionaries to leave China permanently in 1950, he studied at Oregon State College, receiving his Doctorate in 1952. He joined the faculty of Oakwood in 1958 as Professor of Education and Psychology.

That this brief account of Dr. Coberly's determination to receive his training despite the lack of any financial help may be an incentive to the students of Oakwood is the hope of . . .

President's Message

Nestled deep in the throbbing heart of a valley famed for its water-power, Oakwood College constantly gazes on water's wonders. The luxuriance of our campus; the marvel of our city's big spring, gushing at 24 million gallons its never-failing life stream; the arresting beauties of our state's water-inspired wonderland; the miracle-workings of electricity in our region: these things bring to mind the theme of the 1962 Acorn.

What a fitting symbol is water for a Christian institution! Here the pure streams of the Water of Life lead to power of performance. Here the principles of the Word refresh us daily, causing new beauties to spring forth in lives given to God's plan.

The memories of the recent past pictorialized in this book will be fondly cherished. For the future, it is the sincere wish of the administration and of the faculty that the students of Oakwood College will ever stand as trees planted by the rivers of waters.

Principal's Message

Whether in the "Iron Age, the "Steam Age", or the "Space Age," the purpose of true education remains constant. One eminent educator has said that "true education does not ignore the value of scientific knowledge or literary acquirements; but above information it values power, above power, goodness, above intellectual acquirements, character . . . . . Character building is the most important work ever entrusted to human beings."

Oakwood College Academy is dedicated to the fulfillment of the purpose of true education. The Academy administration extends sincere congratulations to the Class of 1962. For them we employ God's continued blessings.

To all prospective students who desire to pursue a Christian education, we extend a cordial invitation to join the Oakwood College Academy family.

"A Guiding Light to a Life of Service"

Oakwood College

Huntsville, Alabama

The degree, or diploma, represents one of the most successful accomplishments in life. But, more important, it opens the gate to opportunities for unlimited service—service to God and to man. The diploma representing an education based on God's Word is, of course, the most desirable and of most value.

"The Holy Scriptures are the perfect standard of truth, and as such should be given the highest place in education. To obtain an education worthy of the name, we must receive a knowledge of God, the Creator, and of Christ, the Redeemer, as they are revealed in the sacred word." Education, p. 17.

The officers and staff of the Southern Union Conference of Seventh-day Adventists congratulate the serious-minded students pictured in this yearbook for selecting a school where is emphasized "the perfect standard of truth."

*"Nature testifies that One infinite in power,
great in goodness, mercy, and love, created the earth and filled it with life and gladness."*

The Ministry of Healing p.411
